

Welcome

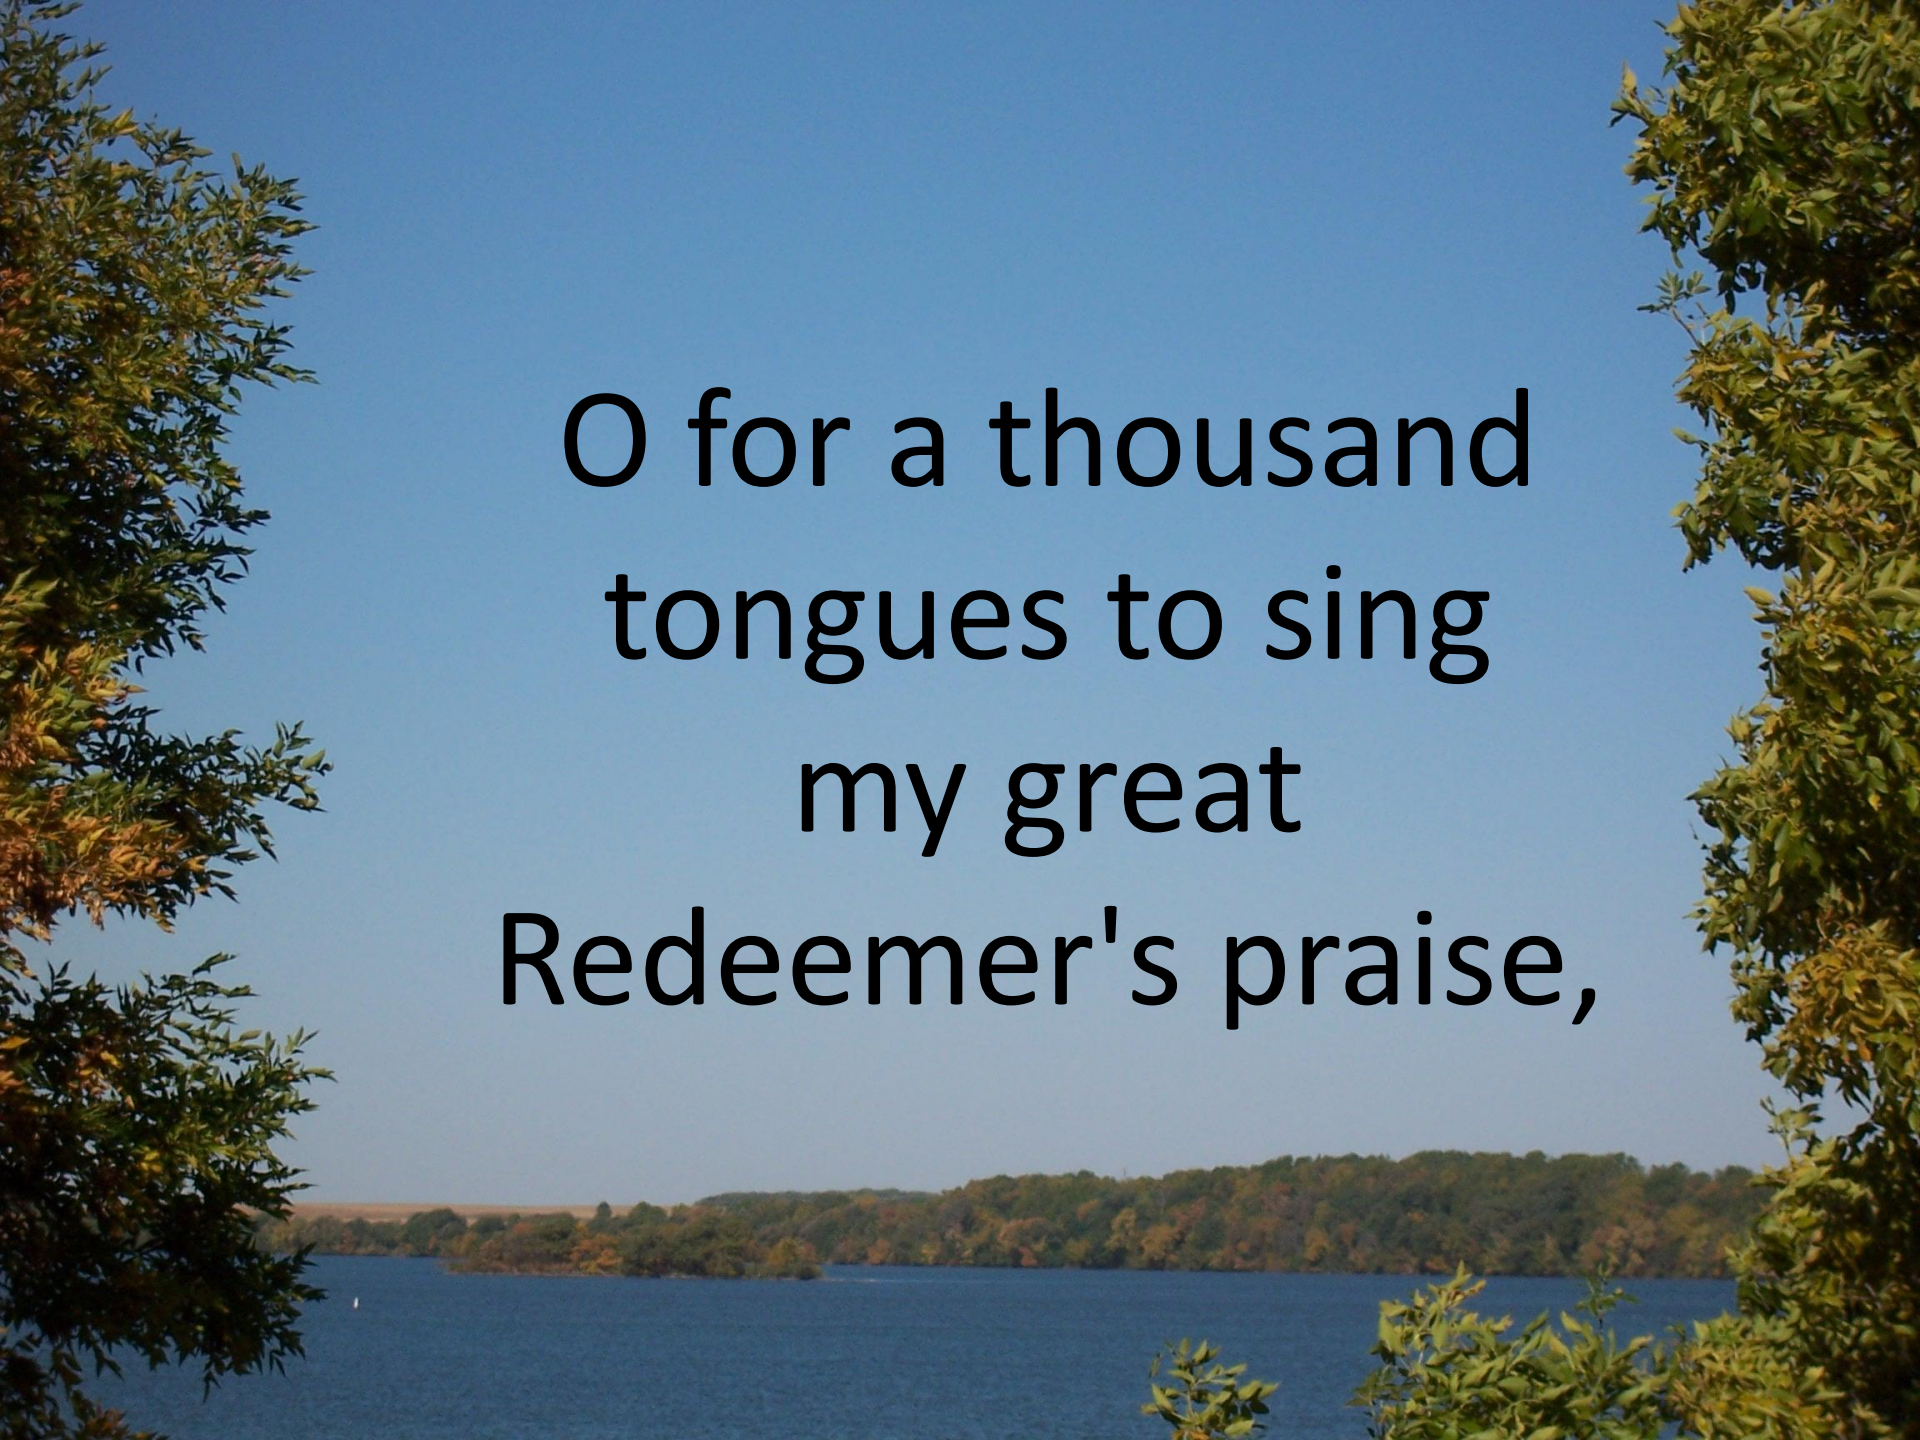

WE'RE GLAD YOU'RE HERE!

GREETINGS

O For A Thousand Tongues to Sing

O for a thousand tongues to sing
my great Redeemer's praise,

the glories of my God and King,
the triumphs of his grace!

My gracious Master
and my God,
assist me to proclaim,

to spread through all the earth abroad
the honors of thy name.

Jesus! the name that charms our fears,
that bids our
sorrows cease;

'tis music in the
sinner's ears,
'tis life and health and peace.

A close-up photograph of several coneflowers (Echinacea) in full bloom. The flowers have bright pink to red petals and dark brown, textured centers. They are set against a background of green foliage. A semi-transparent white rectangular box is centered over the image, containing the word "Prayer" in a black, sans-serif font.

CHILDREN'S TIME

Luke 10: 38-42

Now as they went on their way, he entered a certain village,

where a woman named Martha welcomed him into her home.

She had a sister named Mary, who sat at the Lord's feet and listened to what he was saying.

But Martha was distracted by her many tasks; so she came to him and asked,

“Lord, do you not care that my sister has left me to do all the work by myself?
Tell her then to help me.”

But the Lord answered her, “Martha, Martha, you are worried and distracted by many things;

there is need of only one thing. Mary has chosen the better part, which will not be taken away from her.”

A close-up photograph of a field of purple asters. The flowers have numerous thin, light purple petals radiating from a central yellowish-brown core. A monarch butterfly with orange and black wings is perched on one of the flowers in the upper right quadrant. The background is a soft-focus field of similar flowers.

Message

“Balance in Life”

Balance is physical equilibrium;
even distribution of weight on each side of the vertical axis; mental and emotional steadiness

Balance is the ability to have your weight spread within the limits of your base of support so that you don't fall.

Bethany, by its name, means “house of afflictions.”

Bethany, by its name, also means “house of dates.”

As Jesus and his disciples were on their way, he came to a village where a woman named Martha opened her home to him.

Luke 10: 38

She had a sister called Mary, who sat at the Lord's feet listening to what he said.

Luke 10: 39

But Martha was distracted by all the preparations that had to be made. She came to him and asked, “Lord, don’t you care that my sister has left me to do the work by myself? Tell her to help me!”

Luke 10: 40

“Martha, Martha,” the Lord answered, “you are worried and upset about many things,

Luke 10: 41

but few things are needed—or indeed only one. Mary has chosen what is better, and it will not be taken away from her.”

Luke 10: 42

She had a sister called Mary, who sat at the Lord's feet listening to what he said.

Luke 10: 42

but few things are needed—or indeed only one. Mary has chosen what is better, and it will not be taken away from her.”

Luke 10: 42

TAKE MY LIFE AND LET IT BE

Take my life and let it be consecrated,
Lord, to thee. Take my moments and
my days;
Let them flow in ceaseless praise.

Take my hands and let them move
at the impulse of thy love.

Take my feet and let them be swift and beautiful
for thee.

Take my voice, and let me sing
always, only,
for my King.

Take my lips and let them be filled with messages from thee.

Take my silver and
my gold;
not a mite would I withhold.

Take my intellect
and use every power as thou shalt choose

Take my will and make it thine;
it shall be no longer
mine.

Take my heart it is
thine own;
it shall be thy royal throne

Take my love; my Lord, I pour at thy feet its treasure store.

Take myself, and I will be ever, only, all
for thee,

Benediction
